

SPARTAN BASKETBALL BEHAVIOR CODE AGREEMENT

Playing for the Spartans is a privilege, not a right. Spartan players will meet certain standards of behavior on and off the basketball court.

COURT BEHAVIOR

Spartans are ALWAYS good sports, win or lose. Arguing with referees or fans is NEVER acceptable. Coaches will speak to referees regarding any issues. Trash talking on and off the court is not permitted under any circumstances. Your excellent play will speak for you! The Spartan organization has a long and successful history. When you put on the Spartan uniform, you are expected to act with dignity and class. You are a representative and goodwill ambassador for the Spartan organization.

Spartan players will listen to their coaches on and off the court. Spartan players ALWAYS show respect for their coaches and teammates. All players are part of the team whether they start or get limited playing time. Spartan players support one another and all other Spartan teams.

OFF COURT BEHAVIOR

When playing in tournaments, Spartan players will be expected to bring homework, board games, magazines or a book to read. Spartan players do not run around during games or bounce balls outside of the gym. Spartan players will eat healthy food in between games to ensure their ability to play their best. Spartan players know the importance of good nutrition and how it contributes to playing their best. Spartans will clean up after they have eaten. Spartan players are not litterbugs! Spartan players are expected to use good manners. "Please", "Thank you" and "Excuse Me" are all frequently used words in the Spartan vocabulary. Spartan players do not curse on or off the courts. Spartans do no rough house in between games because accidents can bring unintentional injuries to teammates.

SCHOOL

Spartan players are respectful to their teachers and classmates. They know the importance of getting a good education and of attending school regularly. All players must maintain a C average or they will be referred for academic support.

CONCLUSION

The Spartan organization is about becoming the best player, student and citizen you can be. Your coaches, parents and teachers are all working together to help make you successful in all areas of your life.
